

JOHN GREENAN, P.ENG.
Electrical Engineer

EDUCATION

B.Sc. Electrical Engineering, 1989

University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B.
University of New Brunswick Scholarship, 1989
Dean s List 1988-1989

University of Prince Edward, Charlottetown, P.E.I.
Diploma in Pre-Engineering, 1987
Dean s List and Scholarships, 1984-1987
Alan Moore Memorial Award for Academic Achievement, 1987
Professional Engineers of P.E.I. Scholarship for Second Highest Standing in Graduating Engineering Class at U.P.E.I., 1987

OTHER TRAINING

IES Intermediate Lighting Course ED-150, 1996.

MEMBERSHIPS

Association of Professional Engineers of Prince Edward Island
Member of the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America

EXPERIENCE

October 1997 - Present

Richardson Associates (1993) Limited

Electrical Design Engineer. Typical assignments include, building assessments, conceptual, preliminary and completed designs, cost estimates, application of codes, contract administration and construction review. Designs consist of power distribution, lighting, life safety and communication systems. Prepare and implement commissioning plans, develop operation and maintenance manuals.

1993 - October 1997

Morris & Richard Consulting Engineers Ltd., Halifax, N.S.

Electrical Design Engineer, Associate. Responsible for electrical engineering projects including proposals, building assessments, conceptual, preliminary and completed designs, cost estimates, application of codes, contract administration and construction review. Designs consist of power distribution, lighting, life safety and communication systems. Prepare and implement commissioning plans, develop operation and maintenance manuals. Supervise technical staff. Represent department on ISO 9001 quality management committee.

1989 - 1993

Coles Associates Ltd., Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Electrical Design Engineer.