

NEDZAD SACIRAGIC, P.ENG.
Electrical Engineer

EDUCATION

B.Sc. Electrical Engineering, 1978
University of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Hercegovina

OTHER TRAINING

Computer Assisted Drafting and Design - AutoCAD

LANGUAGES

Bosnian
English
Russian

MEMBERSHIPS

Association of Professional Engineers of Prince Edward Island
P.E.I. Soccer Association, Referee

EXPERIENCE

1995 - Present

Richardson Associates (1993) Limited
Electrical Design Engineer

Typical Projects:

" Design of electrical systems including power distribution, lighting and controls, telephone, data and fire alarm for commercial, industrial and residential buildings.

1980 - 1993

Unis - Engineering, Sarajevo
Department Manager, Supervisor, Electrical Design Engineer.
Typical Projects:

" Electrical design of power distribution and lighting systems for a number of industrial, commercial and institutional buildings in both standard and hazardous locations.

" Supervised the construction of Unis's Head Office, Sarajevo (two 100m high towers, total area 40,000 m²), including the electrical installation of substations and high and low voltage cable networks.

1978 - 1980

Energoinvest, Sarajevo

Electrical Engineer responsible for the design of current and voltage dry measuring transformers.