

Richardson Associates (1993) Limited

-Curriculum Vitae - CV-

Matthew McKenna, B.Sc.E.E., E.I.T

Key Qualifications

Matthew McKenna, E.I.T. is a recent graduate in electrical engineering from the University of New Brunswick and joined the Richardson team in the spring of 2017. His responsibilities are a supportive role in the preparation of electrical design for project undertaken within the office. Other duties include assistance in building assessments, gathering onsite information, application of codes, computer modeling, shop drawing review and spreadsheet design.

Education

Engineering Diploma, University of Prince Edward Island (2015)

Achievements – Dean's List (2013-2015), Ernest and Bernice Smith Award for Highest Standing of Any First Year Engineering Student

Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering (B.Sc.E.E.), University of New Brunswick (2017)

Achievements – University of New Brunswick Scholarship (2015-2017), Dean's List (2015-2017)

Additional Training

Certified SolidWorks Associate (2015)

Relevant Professional Experience

Richardson Associates (1993) Limited (2017 – Present)

Professional Associations

Association of Professional Engineers of P.E.I., Engineer In Training